

Senate Visitors Center, U.S. Capitol

ACTION FOR TRADE LAUNCH

Tuesday, September 26, 2017

HIGHLIGHTS

ACTION for Trade launched the coalition at the U.S. Capitol building with an event that featured encouraging words from Senator Orrin Hatch (R-UT), Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, Congressman Scott Peters (D-CA), and Congressman Doug Collins (R-GA). The Executive Director of ACTION for Trade, Brian Pomper, and the CEOs of three member organizations — Steve Ubl of the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America, Jim Greenwood of the Biotechnology Innovation Organization, and Cary Sherman of the Recording Industry Association of America — also addressed attendees.

SPEAKERS

- Brian Pomper, executive director, ACTION for Trade
- Stephen J. Ubl, president and CEO, PhRMA
- Senator Orrin Hatch (R-UT)
- James Greenwood, president and CEO, BIO
- Congressman Scott Peters (D-CA)
- Cary Sherman, chairman and CEO, RIAA
- Congressman Doug Collins (R-GA)

ATTENDEES

Attendees included congressional staff, members of the press, and representatives from trade associations, companies, think tanks, and other organizations.

Senator Orrin Hatch (R-UT) addresses the room. ACTION for Trade Executive Director Brian Pomper and Congressman Scott Peters (D-CA) listen to the side

Steve Ubl, president and CEO, Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America

WASHINGTON, D.C.